HONGKONG, MONDAY, MARCH 1, 1886.

WHAT the Editor of the Japan Mail describes as the untoward accident to the Chinese man-of-war's crew, who attempted to arrest Chang Chi in this British Colony, has not received the attention of our unofficial members of Council which it deserves. It was stated that the eight men arrested had been released by order of H. E. the Administrator, in consequence of the receipt of a telegram from the British Charge d'Affaires at Peking. The Chinese Government is said to have expressed its entire disapproval of the action of the Captain of the gunboat, and it was also stated that the Governor-General of Fohkien had been instructed to express regret to the Hongkong Government for the occurrence. Now. in view of the facts that this untoward accident has passed into diplomatic bands, and that everything in reason should be done to maintain the entente cordiale with China, this arrangement gret has as yet been received from the here to-day from Macao. Governor-General; or, if it has been THE U.S. corvette Cmaha, Captain Self-3.—The commission charged is as follows received, no notice has as yet appeared stand what conception can have been for Shanghai. formed by the hon, member who represents the Chinese in our local Par- The subscription for the man-of-war Filtthe extreme importance of this matter February

In some previous remarks upon the gravity of this violation of international law, we suggested that the punishment of the ofkong or Shanghal on Ports where there are fenders would have been the only adequate form of meeting the demands of justice. The expression of regret

Now it would appear that neither punishment nor publicity has been secured; and we certainly do not envy the position of the local Government inthe eyes of the large native population of this, island, nor of the inferences which must be drawn regarding the relative respect to be given to our British and the Chinese officials. It is therefore altogether beyond our comprehension that Mr Wong Shing should have shown himself to be so completely unequal to this occasion. That gentleman evidently holds the inviolability of British soil at a cheaper rate than do the majority of his native fellow-re-Hongkong and Whampos Dock Co., Sidents. The good intentions of the Chinese member need not be for a moment questioned. He is beyond Noon. Extraordinary General Meeting suspicion a trustworthy citizen; but it is to be feared that he does not realiss the public duties which devolve upon him as representing his countrymen in the deliberative Assembly of which he is a member. He has either failed to grosp the situation, or he has come short in the qualities necessary to a dignified and vigorous explanation of his views as the medium by which the Government may learn the feeling of Chinese residents on a subject so important to the interests of this Colony generally. In view of the fact that the Foreign Office invariably takes the lend in such matters, where diplomacy is required, this failure on part of the Chinese member of Council is particularly to be regretted. It does not follow that, because the management of this question has been passed over to the Legation at Peking, the Administrator feels less interest in its satisfactory settlement. And it is almost a certainty that the Executive here would be only too glad to see the Chinese representative in the Council make a move in the matter. Will he do so? Or, failing this plain duty being performed, will the European unofficial members put a question which will in some measure show that the representative element in the Council is not altogether indifferent to the most vital interests of this Colony. Signs of the most grave nature are now occasionally making themselves manifest, that the Chinese Government exercises a far more powerful influence on this Island than it ought to do. It is, therefore, in our opinion, absolutely necessary that a stand should be made against this tendency, and the satisfactory and vigorous treatment of this violation of our territorial rights would prove most beneficial to the great and small mandarins of the neighbouring Empire.

THE Comercio is informed that through the representation of the Spanish Minister in China, regarding the assault and robbery which some Manilamen sustained at the hands of the Chinese soldiers at Amoy, the Chinese authorities at Amoy have expressed their disapproval of the acts of the Chinese soldiers in entering the dwellings of the Manilamen without the consent of the Spanish Copsul General, and have ordered that the sum of $2,030 be given to the persons who were wounded in the affray and to pay for the effects which were stolen from thom.

One of the oldest residents in Canton as sures us that the anti-foreign feeling the has never been higher than it is at the present moment, and the temperament of the poople bears a strong resemblance to that which existed immediately preceding the riot of September, 1883; in fact so strong is the feeling that a foreigner can scarcely go a short distance into the city without being frequently insulted and having his cars regaled with the pleasant expression 'kill.' On this account, the departure of the Midge, which had been ordered away, has been postponed. The paragraph in this morning's Daily Press denying the ing up to the Fountain Terrace were disexistence of such a feeling cannot but have a most permisious effect.

THE Jury List for the year commencing to-day is published in Saturday's Gazette. The number of special jurors as compared with that of last year shows a decrease of 13, the figures being respectively 107 for 1885, and 94 for 1886; but the number of included among other choice items an common jurors has increased from 541 to instrumental and a vocal version of a very 578, and is another indication of the increase in the English-speaking portion of in commemoration of the Royal visit to the population. What Mr Jackson described as the 'generous proceedings' of the shareholders' meeting of the Hongkong and Shanghai Bank on Saturday were, it must be admitted, very unusual. The circumstances in which this successful Banking Corporation find itself are almost without precedent. Founded as the local Bank was to supply a felt want, it has turned out to have supplied that want in a most satisfactory mannersatisfactory in every way to its supporters. It is no small matter that the local Bank of a small Colony like Hongkong should rank fourth among English banking institutions, and overtop all those of Scotland, the mother country of banking and bankers. But it is a greater matter for Hongkong that the local Bank has grown with this Colony, and that this Colony has grown much to assert that the Hongkong of to-day owes a great deal to its local Bank, and consequently to its successful Chief Mansger. When, therefore, the Corporation applies to the Executive for an extension of its charter, the Executive and Legislative Councils will be giving a new lease of prosperity to Hongkoug when they extend the ATS the Straits Times: The Hon. J. F. Dickson. Colonial Secretary, who has, since his arrival hore, been most indefatigable and unsparing of himself in the work of making himself fully and perfectly acquaint ed with the multitarious details of the duties portaining to his new position, proceeds on two months' leave of absence on the 5th March, and will be accompanied to Japan will undergo a thorough overhaul and recise is that the Commander-in-Chief will institute measures having for their object the increase of the number of British officers with native regiments. The manœuvres have made it only too apparent that the existing complement is quite inadequate. What the change exactly will be we cannot yet asy, as the subject has not been fully considered; but twelve officers at least will be the infantry establishment in war time. It is likely that only four of these will be mounted, each of the eight companies having European leader on foot. After Major Young's exhaustive paper on the subject the officering of the native army, and the approval with which it was generally received, we shall await with much interest the development of the reforms Sir Frederick Roberts instends to insugurate. The paucity of British officers among native soldiers in the fighting line was one weak point in organisation which struck foreign critics at Delhi. - Pioneer.

Says the Straits Times: -- The Cevion Observer mentions a rumour prevalent about the Colombo Law Courts to the effect that Mr. Justice Clarence is likely to obtain the vacant Chief Justiceship of the Straits. which Sir Bruce Burnside was obliged to decline. This ramour however must be incorrect. The Chief Justiceship has been awarded in the quarter, we are glad to believe, where it was most richly deserved, but Mr. Clarence may be coming to the Straits either to fill the vacancy caused by Mr. Justice Ford's promotion, or as the Fourth Judge. The salary attached to the office he holds in Caylon is Rs. 18,000, with an allowance of Rs. 1.800 as Private Secretary. while the salary attached to the two posts vacant here is $8.400, with Private Score tary's allowance of $1.200 -so that the monetary consideration will hardly weigh one way or another. But the counideration mentioned by our contemporary of strained relations between himself and the Caylon Bar may have led to Mr. Clarence desiring to seek fresh fields and postures new. The Hon. L. B. Clarence referred to, is the Senior Puisns Judge of Ceylon, and is thus mentioned in the Colonial Office List: Educated at Milton Abbas School and rinity College, Cambridge; graduated B.A., 1861; called to the Bar at the Inner Strongly advocated by The Times as a policy which would secure the peace of the Orient, and as the natural sequel of the good understanding established between Tokyo and No. 17 of 1885, entitled-An Ordinance to Peking by the visit of Count Ito to China last spring, the idea of this alliance has not yet found much favour in Japan. Esnecially since the Conservatives went out of No. 18 of 1885, entitled-The Prison Ordi- office, does reluctance to be drawn into any union manifest itself. The Nichi Nich Shimbun appears to think that the entents now existing, or improsed to exist, between England and China is entirely a child of Lord Salisbury's begetting, and that under Mr Gladstone's guardianship the new-born infant will speedily lapse into a decline. Our contemporary is not quite accurate in this view. Everybody who has watched the course of events closely must know that the seeds of an understanding between England and China were sown under the Liberal regime. It is not at their birth that these international arrangements come to public notice. The way must have been prepared for them and their preliminaries considered before entsiders begin to detect the signs of their existence. Mr Gladstone appreciates the value of an alliance with China and Japan just as much as Lord Saby Mrs Dickson and family. During his lisbury, and of the two statesmen we should absence, the Colonial Secretary's residence say that the purpose of such an alliance would commend itself more to the former. pair, and some substantial improvement and For that purpose would be essentially peace. The allies would wield a force against which no Power could hope to stand in the East. We say nothing against Japan's policy of waiting, because our belief is that England and China have not yet passed the threshold of an agreement. The omplexion, which sanguine writers like Mr Colquboun put upon the situation, and the enlightened views which they attribute to Chinese statesmen, must not be accepted without reserve. That there are some politicians in the Middle Kingdom who sincerely desire to bring about an alliance with England, we entertain not the slightest doubt. But what the world hears of the matter now is probably the preface only. Perhaps Japan might accelerate the accomplishment if she also put her a shoulder to the wheel. But we can well understand and sympathise with her desire to avoid anything like precipitate action, and

The Ovenland China Mail,

A WEEKLY JOURNAL.

S PUBLISHED to suit the Departure of each English and FRENCH MAIL Steamer for Europe. Formerly the Over-land issue was published fortnightly; but as it was deemed of special importance that a weekly budget of news should be prepared, it was decided to issue it weekly. Subscribers at Home, and those at the Coast Ports and in the interior, who find the Overland edition a convenient form of newspaper for their perusal, will welcome the change. The Overland China Mail, now a weekly compendium of news from the Far-East, contains special Commercial intelligence, special tables of Shipping, and other information. The various Reports of Courts and Meetings, and all other news, are given in full as they appear in the Daily issue.

The attention of Advertisers is directed to a weekly newspaper, which is circulated among old China 'hands' and others, both at home and in the Far East, who do not take the daily journals.

The Overland China Mail will be regularly posted from the China Mail Office to subscribers, on their addresses being forwarded to us;

A Reduction of ten per cent. will allowed to purchasers of Ten or more copies.

This Standard Work on the Chinese Language, constructed on the basis of Kanghi's Imperial Dictionary, contains all Chinese characters in practical use, and while alphanetically arranged according to the sounds of the oldest dialect of China, the Cantonese, it gives also the Mandarin pronunciation of all characters explained in the book, so that its usefulness is by no means confined to the Cantonese Dialect, but the work is a practically complete Thesaurus of the whole Written Language of China, ancient and modern, as used all over the Empire, whilst its introductory chapters serve the purposes of a philological guide to the student A Supplement, arranged for being bound and used by itself, and containing a List of the Radicals, an Index, and a List of Surnames, will be published and sold separately.
